

Sandra Perera, CPA

Senior Tax Manager

Klein Mendez & Rothbard LLC

Experience

Ms. Perera is a Senior Tax Manager in the Aventura office of Klein Mendez & Rothbard LLC. Sandra has 10 years of “Big 4” public accounting experience serving financial services clients and multinational corporations. She has been responsible for tax planning and tax compliance functions of companies with US and foreign operations. Ms. Perera’s involvement with clients include reviewing tax filings, planning for and structuring complex transactions to minimize taxes, review of tax provisions for financial reporting purposes, and dealing with the Internal Revenue Service on examinations. She also served as firm technical resource with respect to the information reporting and withholding rules, including assisting clients with the implementation of the U.S. domestic and non resident alien rules with respect to IRC Section 1441. Ms. Perera has experience in the areas of residential, commercial, office operating properties and large-scale land developments.

Professional Affiliations

Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)

Member, Florida International Banking Association (FIBA)

Member, The Cuban American CPAs Association (CACPA)

Education

Double Major in Finance and Accounting, Florida International University

Master in Taxation, Florida International University

Certified Public Accountant